TRAINING

I have been in the development world since 2005, however 2016 was where my journey took center stage. My portfolio website contains many apps, mainly built with React, Vanilla Javascript and more working with API data. The apps range from LinkedIn/Facebook/Whatsapp clones using firebase authentication, as well as an Amazon clone with full payment processing. Since my knowledge has deepened in React, Javascript, OOP and I have now worked on large Angular projects.
